

LINCOLN ESTATE

~ Eyre Peninsula Wines ~

2003 BLUEFIN

Port Lincoln Merlot

COLOUR:

Medium to deep purple/red

NOSE:

Intriguing aromas of exotic red and black berry fruits, nicely married with some classy French oak. Has a touch of “kirsch like” aroma lurking in the background.

PALATE:

Quite plump with good concentration of the ripe berry fruits and balanced oak as exhibited on the nose. The kirsch like flavour is apparent here too. Quite firmly structured with a solid backbone of acid and tannin that adds to the wine’s length.

ALCOHOL:

14.0%

BOTTLED:

October 2004 ~ 165 dozen

NOTES:

Really nice wine that should offer nice drinking after a year or two in the bottle. No problem to keep for 5 or so years in the cellar.
